Vocational View: From our birth God calls us to be whole, holy people. How are you growing in wholeness and holiness? For some, the path to wholeness and holiness is through service as a sister, brother, or priest. Think about it! (1 Corinthians 1:1-3)

Spirit Lifters

Jan. 18th - Tomorrow is not promised us, so let us take today and make the most of it.

Jan. 19th - If you meet one too tired to smile, leave one of yours; Nobody needs a smile, as much as those who have none to give.

Jan. 20th - Children may close their ears to advice, but they open their eyes to example.

Jan. 21st - Take time to love; it is what makes you Godlike.

Jan. 22nd - Let me give so much time to the improvement of myself that I shall have not time to criticize others.

Jan. 23rd - I asked of life: "What have you to offer me?" And the answer came: "What have you got to give?"

Jan. 24th - To attain the highest good of true man and womanhood, simply do your honest best - God with joy will do the rest.

A note from Fr. Abraham

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The Catholic Schools Week will begin on Sunday, January 25th and our National theme is "Catholic Schools: United in Faith and Community." Catholic schools have an irreplaceable role in the Church's evangelizing mission. Building on the central goal of Catholic schools to form saints, Catholic schools teach and embrace the whole person, body, mind and spirit. The fact that all members of a Catholic school community share the Christian vision of faith that Christ is the foundation of Catholic education is what unites the school as a faith-filled community.

While faith is the binding element in Catholic schools, the Church reiterates that parents are the first teachers of their children. Holding this tenet, Catholic school communities expand beyond the walls of school buildings to envelop the family as an integral part of the school community. Together teachers, administrators, staff, students and parents fuel the light of faith by integrating culture with faith and faith with living.

The CSW logo symbolizes the united community of Catholic schools – not a building or an institution, but people of faith serving God and others. No Catholic school can fulfill its educational role alone. As a community, Catholic schools are nourished and stimulated by the centrality of the word of Christ expressed through knowledge, service, scripture and sacramental tradition.

Catholic Schools: United in Faith and Community is a theme on which to build a spirit of the gospel to benefit the human family. (Taken from the website of National Catholic Educational Association).

May God continue to bless our School, staff, students, parents, parishes, families, friends and the community and may He keep all of us in His loving care.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Abraham, MCBS

Adoration Hour for the Unborn at Immaculate Conception Parish in Iron Mountain

We will have adoration from 6-7 pm on Thursday, January 22nd for prayers for the legal protection of the unborn. Please consider coming to pray for those who don't have a voice and have a right to life. There will be pizza and time to socialize in the parish hall following.

Join Dr. Patrick Richardson in the St. Mary & St. Joseph (Iron Mountain) Parish Hall on Thursday, January 22nd at 6:30pm, as he presents a talk on "The Power and Pitfalls of a Catholic Thinking Too Much".

Do you ever feel like your mind won't stop analyzing, planning, and judging even though your faith tells you to trust and rest in God? Our strong Catholic heritage of reason is a blessing, but rationality taken to extremes can rob us of peace and joy.

In this talk, "The Power and Pitfalls of a Catholic Thinking Too Much," I'll reflect on the challenges and possibilities of finding harmony between intellect, emotion, and trust in the Lord.

Dr. Patrick Richardson is a Catholic psychologist who values authenticity, critical thinking, and the study of the human person. In his clinical work, his practice focuses on the assessment and treatment of mental health issues. His specialties include:

- personality testing
- treatment of trauma, and existential crises of spirituality or identity.
