A NOTE FROM FATHER ABRAHAM

Eternal Rest: The Art of Dying Well.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Last week we learned about The Story of death and The Afterlife. This week, On Thursday, November 12th we will join at St.Mary's Parish Hall from 6:00pm – 7:30 pm to learn:

The Hour of our Death: The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments of the Church. But whom exactly is this sacrament for? What are its effects? In this session, we discover the role of this sacramental anointing in the spiritual struggle during serious illness, in the final stages of our temporal life, and at the hour of our death.

AND

The Faithful Departed: What is left for the living to do after someone dies? In this session, we talk about the final ways in which those still living on earth care for the body and soul of the dead. We discuss the work that remains for the living to do as we grieve for the deceased and as we turn to the work of preparing for our own death, and the hope in which we live and die as Christians. All are welcome.

Also, A Book of Remembrance is kept at the vestibule of the churches for you to write the names of your departed loved ones and they will be remembered in our daily Mass during this month. May our remembrance and prayer give comfort and consolation to all who are grieving.

Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord
And Let Perpetual Light shine upon them

May God continue to bless our parishes, families, friends and the community and may He keep all of us in His loving care.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Abraham MCBS

VOCATIONAL VIEW

Oil and time: light and patience - requirements for discipleship. Keep your eyes open! In time, you will see what you are called to do. (Matthew 25:1-13)

PRO-LIFE CORNER

Abortion is poorly veiled social injustice with consequences for all children. The silence of the unborn is deafening; we must be their voice.

SPIRITUAL LIFTERS

Nov. 8th - We lose the peace of years when we hunt after the rapture of moments.

Nov. 9th - Faults are thick when love is thin.

Nov. 10th - Christianity is the highest perfection of humanity.

Nov. 11th - Great occasions for serving God come seldom, but little ones surround us daily.

Nov. 12th - My grandfather once told me that there are two kinds of people; Those who do the work and those who take the credit. He told me to try to be in the first group; there was much less competition there.

Nov. 13th - Ideas are funny little things, They won't work unless you do.

Nov. 14th - And when in the mansions above, The saved all around me appear, I'd like to hear somebody say; It was you who invited me here.

DEADLINE

BULLETIN DEADLINE: Please have all bulletin announcements to St. Mary Parish Office by MONDAY AT NOON. Announcements need to be typed, emailed or written out. Thank you.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Let us rejoice in all the men and women, blest in the eyes of the Lord, who celebrate the heavenly liturgy. They stand in God's holy place and sing of the love the Father has bestowed upon them through the blood of the Lamb.

We will be blessing the statues of St. Peregrine Laziosi and St. Carlo Acutis at St. Mary's church on November 15 before the 10:00am Mass.

St. Peregrine is the patron Saint of persons with cancer, foot ailments, or any incurable disease.

St. Carlo Acutis earned the title "patron Saint of the internet" and "God's influencer" because of his self-taught computer programming skills and the global website he built to catalog Eucharistic miracles from around the world.

He is also the patron Saint of Youth & Students: As a teenager who died of leukemia at age 15, he serves as a modern model of faith and holiness for young people, students, and Catholic youth groups.

We will ask the intersession of St. Peregrine every Tuesday after the 5:00 PM Mass for all who are sick especially those who are suffering from cancer and of St. Carlo for our students and youth on every Friday after the 8:30 AM Mass.

Saint Carlo Acutis

Born in London in 1991 and raised in Milan, Carlo was a joyful and curious child. His parents weren't particularly religious, but from a young age, he was drawn to the Church. He would ask to visit churches during family trips and often prayed the Rosary on his own.

At seven, Carlo made his First Communion and from then on attended daily Mass, prayed before the Blessed Sacrament, and loved learning about the saints. He had a particular devotion to Our Lady and his guardian angel and found joy in small acts of kindness—standing up for classmates who were bullied, spending time with those who felt left out, and always showing compassion to people in need.

Carlo also loved technology. He taught himself coding, designed websites, and edited videos. But he set firm limits, keeping his gaming time to a minimum so he could focus on what truly mattered. His approach to life was simple: live with intention, put God first, and love others deeply. "To be always united with Jesus, this is my plan of life," he once said.

Eucharistic Miracles and His Digital Mission: Carlo saw technology as a tool, not a distraction. At just 14, he began building a website cataloging Eucharistic miracles from around the world. He spent hours researching, writing, and designing the site, hoping it would help others rediscover the power of the Eucharist.

That project eventually became a traveling exhibition, spreading to more than 10,000 churches and schools across five continents. To Carlo, the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist wasn't just a doctrine. It was the key to a changed life. He once said, "The Eucharist is my highway to heaven."

His devotion was more than just intellectual. Carlo said, "By standing before the Eucharistic Christ, we become holy." Even in the hospital, just days before his death, he finalized the website's launch. It wasn't about fame or recognition. He simply wanted others to experience what he knew: the deep, transformative love of Jesus.

Carlo's Death and Path to Sainthood: In October 2006, Carlo came down with what seemed like the flu. It quickly escalated, and he was diagnosed with a rare form of leukemia. Doctors gave him little hope, but Carlo remained calm and full of trust.

He offered his suffering to God with intention, praying for the Pope, for the Church he loved, and for anyone carrying a heavier cross than his own. "There are people who suffer more than me," he told his mother. His final words to her were filled with peace: "Mom, don't be afraid. Since Jesus became a man, death has become the passage towards life, and we don't need to flee it."

Carlo passed away at just 15 years old. But his story didn't end there. As word of Carlo's life spread, people from across the world began asking for his intercession. Stories of healing and conversions spread. In 2013, the Church officially opened his cause for canonization.

The first confirmed miracle came from Brazil. A boy with a serious pancreatic condition was healed after his family prayed a novena to Carlo and placed a relic of his near the boy during prayer. The healing was instantaneous and permanent. In 2020, Pope Francis beatified Carlo in Assisi.

The second miracle, recognized in 2024, involved a young woman in Costa Rica who had suffered a severe brain injury. Her mother made a pilgrimage to Carlo's tomb and prayed for healing. That same day, her daughter began to recover and soon returned to full health.

Canonization and Carlo's Legacy: Carlo had asked to be buried in Assisi, and in 2019, his body was moved to the Sanctuary of the Spoliation. Since then, thousands have come to visit his tomb. He lies in a glass case, dressed in jeans and a hoodie, just as he lived. For many young Catholics, it's a powerful sight. They don't see a distant figure from the past. They see someone like them. Visitors often speak of a presence that feels close, as if he never really left.

His canonization was scheduled for April 27, 2025, during the Jubilee of Teenagers. But after Pope Francis's recent passing in April 2025, the Vatican postponed the ceremony. A new date is expected, and the world continues to watch and pray.

Carlo's mission hasn't paused. His exhibitions travel the globe. His websites reach millions. His story is told in over 18 languages. And his message remains unchanged: love the Eucharist, stay close to Jesus, and use your gifts for good.

Why Carlo Acutis Inspires the New Generation: What makes Carlo so special is that he was real. He wasn't a mystic in the mountains or a monk in a cloister. He was a teen who loved video games, made silly jokes, and cared deeply about people.

He used to say, "We are all born originals, but many die as photocopies." That was his challenge to the world: don't settle for imitation. Be who God created you to be. Carlo did just that, and he did it with joy.

He also said, "Not me, but God." Those four words became his life motto. They captured the humility and clarity with which he approached his mission. His quiet confidence came not from self-reliance but from his unwavering trust in Christ.

Young people see him as one of their own. Parents see in him a light of hope. Teachers and priests see a bridge between tradition and today's digital world. Carlo shows that faith isn't outdated. It's alive, relevant, and deeply needed.

A Legacy That Lives On: Carlo Acutis continues to guide and inspire. His love for the Eucharist, his joyful spirit, and his fearless faith show us that holiness is possible in the modern world.

Many now pray to him, carry his prayer cards, and share his quotes. Others give devotional gifts in his honor, especially to young people receiving the sacraments. If you're looking to deepen your connection with Carlo, St. Patrick's Guild offers a curated collection of prayer cards, books, medals, and Confirmation gifts.

Carlo reminds us that being close to God doesn't require perfection, just a willing heart. As he put it, "To always be close to Jesus, that's my life plan." With faith in Christ and a desire to serve, each of us can walk our own highway to heaven, following the footprints of a teenager who chose love above all else.

Saint Peregrine Laziosi

Peregrine Laziosi was born in 1265 in Forli in Italy. As a young man, he led a worldly and dissolute life. In his teens, he joined the enemies of the Pope in his hometown and became a ringleader of rebels.

The story of St. Peregrine, patron saint of persons suffering from cancer: Pope Martin IV sent Philip Benizi of the Order of Servites (Servants of Mary) as his personal ambassador to try to bring peace to the angry rebels. While addressing crowds of malcontents one day, he was dragged off the rostrum, beaten with clubs, and pelted with rocks. Peregrine knocked down Benizi with a vicious blow to the face.

Young Peregrine was stricken with remorse. He cast himself at the feet of the bruised and bleeding priest and asked for his forgiveness. Benizi granted it with a smile. From that moment, Peregrine became a staunch champion of Benizi. He heeded Philip's suggestion and often prayed in Our Lady's chapel in the Cathedral.

While kneeling in the chapel one day, he had a vision of the Blessed Mother holding in her hands a black habit like the one the Servites wore. “Go to Siena,” Mary told the astonished Peregrine. “There you will find devout men who call themselves my servants. Attach yourself to them.”

St. Peregrine’s conversion: The Servites warmly welcomed Peregrine, and Benizi himself ceremoniously clothed Peregrine in the religious habit. Daily, Peregrine sought to become a more fervent religious man. To atone for past misdeeds, he treated himself harshly and worked hard for the poor and afflicted. People took to calling him the “Angel of Good Counsel,” grateful for his wise advice so freely given.

After being ordained a priest, Peregrine went to Forli and founded a Servite monastery. A few years later, a cancerous growth appeared on his right foot — so painful that he finally agreed to have the foot amputated. The night before the surgery, Peregrine spent hours in prayer then dozed off and dreamt that Christ was touching him and healing his foot. The thrill of it woke him up and in the dim moonlight he saw that his foot, carefully bandaged a few hours earlier, was completely healed.

St. Peregrine’s miracles: From that time forward, when Forli people were sick, they appealed to Peregrine’s prayers. Some were cured when he whispered “Jesus” into their ears. The Church has since appointed him patron of persons with cancer, foot ailments, or any incurable disease.

Important dates for St. Peregrine: Peregrine died in the year 1345 at the age of 85 and was canonized in 1926. St. Peregrine’s Feast Day is May 1.

Youth Popcorn Sale

November 21-22

Support our youth and enjoy a delicious treat! Our teens will be hosting a Popcorn Fundraiser to raise funds for the upcoming Steubenville Youth Conference. They will be accepting free-will offerings and donations. Every dollar directly lowers the cost for our teens to attend this life-changing weekend of faith, fellowship, and worship.

ATTENTION LECTORS
The new workbooks are ready to be picked up in the sacristy of each respective parish. Thank you!

The next Food, Faith & Fellowship is on Thursday, November 19, 5:30pm at St. Barbara Parish Hall.

All are welcome. Sign up sheets will be in the vestibules of both parishes.

The Knights of Columbus Keep Christ in Christmas Poster Contest will be taking place the month of November. The sign up sheets with all the information are in the back of both parishes. We encourage all children from our Parishes, Schools and Faith Formation classes to participate.

St. Barbara's Women's League Hunter's Bake Sale

Calling all bakers and canners - both women and men of the parish! There are bakery/canned item donation sheets in the vestibule and on the handicapped entrance bulletin board. Please indicate what kind of item or items you will be donating and on which day of the sale you will be bringing them to the parish hall. Also in the vestibule is a volunteer signup sheet. Thank you for your participation.

The Knights of Columbus thank everyone for donating to the Tootsie Roll Drive. We were able to raise over $1,230 dollars for the Special Olympics and Special Needs Program at the school.

DON'T MISS THIS!

Sunday November 22nd

at 6 pm at St. Mary Queen of Peace, Kingsford

What does the Church teach about saints? How does one become a saint? Join us for an inspirational evening of saints, miracles, healings, and fellowship. This night is for everyone, especially for young families. It will raise awareness of the importance of being a true disciple for Christ our King. There will be a witness to the life of a man in our diocese who is being investigated by the Church for sainthood. A "common man's saint". If your life is too busy with work, worry, bills, children's activities, or suffering, and you feel like being a "good Catholic" is too hard, this night could change your life.

All Saints Day at Holy Spirit School

On Friday, October 30th, Holy Spirit Catholic School students celebrated All Saints Day at Mass, honoring the saints who inspire us through their faith, courage, and example. Students had the opportunity to learn more about the lives of the saints and reflect on how they can follow their example in their own lives. Their creative saint costumes brought these inspiring stories to life and added a special touch to the celebration!
