4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.” - Mt 5:10-12a

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF AUTHENTIC DETACHMENT FOR LENT

Join Dr. Patrick Richardson
February 19th @6:30pm at St. Mary & St. Joseph Parish
Downstairs in the Parish Hall
For this inspiring Lenten talk

Lent is an invitation to Christians to practice detachment from all that is not God, to loosen our grip on worldly things and draw ever closer to God alone. Yet the same tradition also teaches us to pursue meaningful relationships and to love our neighbor deeply.

How do we detach from the world without pulling away from those we are called to love?

In "The Psychology of Authentic Detachment for Lent," we'll explore how psychological insights into healthy, secure relationships can actually deepen true spiritual detachment, and help our Lenten journey to build stronger, more loving bonds with God AND one another.

Countercultural Then and Now

Sometimes I wonder what this world will look like when my children get to be my age. Everything seems to be changing so rapidly and much of that change doesn't seem to be for the good. I do think in some ways the Church is experiencing resurgence and a strengthening, but it will have to be in the face of an increasing culture of atheism and selfishness.

Of course, I bet my parents wondered the same thing when I was a child. As much as things change, they remain the same. When Jesus gave his Sermon on the Mount, I would guess some parents there were having the same kind of worries. But Jesus proposed a way of life in the beatitudes that was countercultural then and is countercultural now.

In his book, Life of Christ, Fulton Sheen said this: "The Sermon on the Mount is so much at variance with all that our world holds dear that the world will crucify anyone who tries to live up to its values." Living a stewardship way of life means bringing the beatitudes into our daily lives in a profound way. However, it also means living in a way that others may not understand or they may even turn away from us because of it. But with the reward in the end being the kingdom of heaven, the choice is really a matter of life and death, eternally speaking.
