PARISHIONER PRAYERS

Please pray for our parishioners in Nursing Homes, Assisted Living, are homebound and those who suffer in silence. Special prayers for healing were requested for: Wayne Hulce, Jerry Gauthier, Jon Schwamlien, Mary Margaret Zanoni, Bill Falk, Chloe Conery, Bob Chartre, Missy Marcelini, Peyton & Paisley Pietrantonio, David Hoheisel, Sharon Harder, Joe Haferkorn, Gina Zanon and Ginger Moore. If you need continued prayers or would like to request prayers for someone else, please email or call the parish office.

Saint Mary and Saint Barbara Parish Families extend their sympathy to the families of Mo Brooks, Sue Gedvick (sister to Vicky Tomasoski and sister-in-law to Beth Gedvick), and Betty Stachowicz (sister to Rosalie Dallapiazza). May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. AMEN.

A NOTE FROM FATHER ABRAHAM

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Lenten Penance Service

Just a reminder that our Lenten Penance Service will be held this Sunday, March 8 starting at 3:00 PM. Priests from our neighboring parishes will be here to hear confessions. Come to the Lord and experience the extraordinary grace of His forgiveness.

Anointing the Sick within the Mass

We will be celebrating the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick within the Mass on March 10, at 5:00PM at St. Mary Parish. I invite you to join and pray for all who are sick and suffering in our parishes, families and friends.

Adoration and Holy Hour at St. Mary.

Our community is blessed to have the Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament every First Friday from 9:00am to 3:00pm and every Saturday from 11:00am to 12:00pm. The first Code of Canon Law urged the "faithful to visit the Most Blessed Sacrament as often as possible." Since the Eucharist is really, truly and substantially the body and blood together with the Soul and Divinity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, it is extremely profitable to spend time adoring, loving and worshiping the Blessed Sacrament as often as we can. It is the equivalent of touching, seeing, and being in the presence of living God just like the apostles were when Jesus walked this Earth and we all know how those who merely touched the hem of his garment received supernatural healing and grace. Adorers find that the Mass takes on a new meaning because they have meditated on our Lord's Eucharistic Presence in their time alone with him.

"Withdraw yourself from people and spend at least a quarter of an hour, or a half-hour, in some church in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Taste and see how sweet is the Lord, and you will learn from your own experience how many graces this will bring you." – St. Alphonsus Liguori (1696-1787)

May God continue to bless our parishes, families, friends and the community and may He keep all of us in His loving care. Wishing you all a Blessed Lent.

With love and prayers,
 Fr. Abraham, MCBS

Anointing of the Sick

Joined to Christ, Witnesses of Hope and Healing

Anointing of the Sick is the sacrament that is received by those who are ill or suffering. By the sacred anointing and the prayer of the priest, the whole Church commends those who are sick to Christ. The sick person receives the Holy Spirit's gifts of strength, faith, peace, and courage, and his or her suffering is united with the suffering of Christ for the building up of the Church (Catechism of the Catholic Church [CCC], nos. 1520-23).

Through the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, the Church carries out Jesus' mission of compassion and healing for the sick. The one who is ill can also be a minister to others. By uniting their suffering to Christ, those who are sick can be signs of faith and witnesses of Christ's Resurrection to the entire community (St. John Paul II, Christifideles Laici [The Vocation and the Mission of the Lay Faithful in the Church and in the World], no. 54).

A Communal Celebration

The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is both "a liturgical and a communal celebration." In the family home, hospital, or church, members of the Body of Christ gather for the sacramental rite led by a priest. The Penitential Rite followed by the Liturgy of the Word and sacramental anointing of the sick can inspire and comfort both those who are ill and their family and friends who are gathered (CCC, nos. 1517-18). Many parishes have communal celebrations at which many persons receive the sacrament. These sacramental celebrations are a "source of strength amid pain and weakness, hope amid despair" and a "joyful encounter" for the entire community (Christifideles Laici, no. 54).

Connection to the Communion of Saints

Anointing with sacred oil is a sign of blessing by the Holy Spirit of the one who is sick. Oil of the Sick, which receives a different blessing from the Chrism oil used during Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Orders, recalls the community's sharing of the Holy Spirit and the sick person's connection to the entire Body of Christ and Communion of Saints.

Imitation of Christ's Compassion

In the Gospels, Christ's great compassion toward the sick is expressed in the miraculous healings he performs, which heal the entire person, both body and soul. Parables such as the Good Samaritan (Lk 10:29-37) and the Judgment of the Nations (Mt 25:31-46) urge Christ's followers to share his ministry of compassion and healing and to imitate his "preferential love for the sick" and all who suffer (CCC, nos. 1503, 1506; Pope Benedict XVI, Sacramentum Caritatis [Sacrament of Charity], no. 22; see also Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti, chapter 2).

Solidarity with All Who Suffer

We care for the sick because we see them as children of God and part of our human family. When one part of the Body of Christ suffers, we all suffer (1 Cor 12:26). The suffering of one impacts everyone. Thus, we are called to solidarity, which is responsibility on the part of everyone with regard to everyone (St. John Paul II, Sollicitudo Rei Socialis [On Social Concern], no. 38; Pope Benedict XVI, Caritas in Veritate [Charity in Truth], no. 38).

By our compassion, we remind those who are sick that "[the Church] shares your suffering. She takes it to the Lord, who in turn associates you with his redeeming Passion" (Synod of Bishops, Per Concilii Semitas ad Populum Dei Nuntius, no. 12). We are called to comfort, pray for and with, and be in solidarity with all who are sick or suffering.

Caring for those who suffer is not a burden, but a gift. Those who care for the sick do holy and important work; they walk with Christ's suffering people and in doing so, serve Christ himself (Mt 25:31-46). Those who minister to the sick and who work to secure decent health care for all become "the living sign of Jesus Christ and his Church in showing love towards the sick and suffering" (Christifideles Laici, no. 53).

Union with Christ's Passion

While it is possible that the sacrament could bring physical healing, Anointing of the Sick is primarily about the healing of hope and of the spirit. Above all, the sacrament allows the person who is ill to unite more closely to Christ's Passion. This gives suffering a new meaning: a participation in the saving work of Jesus. This is a powerful witness that is for the good of the whole Church (CCC, nos. 1521-22).

Beacons of Hope

St. John Paul II wrote, "Even the sick are sent forth as laborers into the Lord's vineyard" (Christifideles Laici, no. 53). As the sick unite their sufferings to those of Christ, they become bearers of the joy of the Holy Spirit in the midst of affliction and witnesses of Christ's Resurrection. Anointing of the Sick testifies to the fact that all are called to participate in the redemption of the world (Sacramentum Caritatis, no. 22). We all have a role in sanctifying and building up the Church, whatever our physical condition. As the Synod of Bishops told an audience of sick and suffering persons, "We need you to teach the whole world what love is" (Per Concilii Semitas ad Populum Dei Nuntius, no. 12).

A Witness to Dignity

The sacrament reminds us that each person is made in the image of God and has dignity that remains unchanged, whatever the body suffers. The ministry of those who are sick is a powerful witness to the fact that human dignity is intrinsic and does not increase or decrease based on a person's physical state or abilities. This is why the Church works to protect the life and dignity of the person at every stage of life—the embryo, the person suffering from illness, the family in poverty, and the person nearing death—and why she works to secure access to decent health care for all.

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

For those who are ill: St. Paul VI, at the closing of the Second Vatican Council said:

All of you who feel heavily the weight of the cross . . . you the unknown victims of suffering, take courage. You are the preferred children of the kingdom of God, the kingdom of hope, happiness and life. You are the brothers of the suffering Christ, and with Him, if you wish, you are saving the world. (Address to the poor, the sick, and the suffering)

What role do you play in ministering to the People of God?

For those who are healthy: Reflecting on the Parable of the Good Samaritan, Pope Francis asks, "Will we bend down to touch and heal the wounds of others? Will we bend down and help another to get up?" (Fratelli Tutti [On Fraternity and Social Friendship], no. 70). We are invited to care for the needs of those who are sick with the same "fraternal spirit of care and closeness that marked the Good Samaritan" (no. 79).

How are you called to imitate the example of the Good Samaritan?
