Dec. 29th - Beware of the high cost of low living.
Dec. 30th - It is better to look ahead and prepare than to look back and regret.

A note from Fr. Abraham

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,
Happy New Year!!

As we come to the end of the year, I just want to say "Thanks". First of all, I thank God for calling me to the priesthood and blessing me with His grace to serve His people with my limitations and imperfections. It was my 32nd Anniversary of my Ordination on December 26th. I remember and give thanks to all the people that God placed in my life and for their love, prayers and support.

I also thank all of you for welcoming me to our parishes this year. From the first day of my arrival, you all were so welcoming, kind and hospitable. Thank you for your love, support, understanding, and prayers.

We have two amazing parishes. And I am thankful for that. Each and every one of you makes our parishes amazing. There are so many of you who do amazing things by giving your time, talent, and treasure. There are many who do things quietly behind the scenes to make our parishes amazing, and I am thankful to all of you.

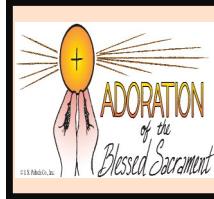

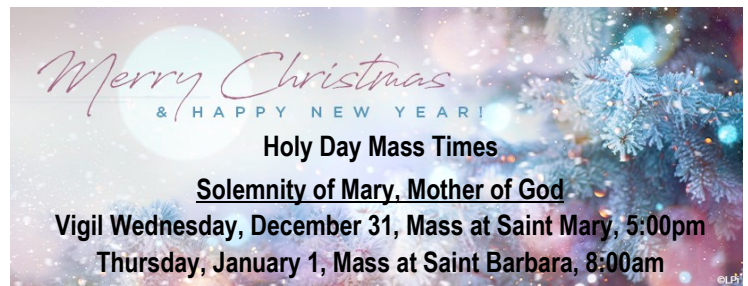

I gratefully remember all who decorate the church, our liturgical ministers, our musicians, our catechists, and all who help with our parish programs and events. Thank you. I express my special thanks to our parish staff. I daily witness their love for the church, for the people, for their faith, and they do their best to continue the mission of the Church. I am especially grateful for the personal support they give me as I do the work of a pastor. Thank you.

As we enter the new year, I encourage you to carry the spirit of Christmas with you. May the light of Christ guide your path, and may His love inspire you to share the good news with those around you. This season reminds us that the gift of God's Son is not just for a single day, but for every moment of our lives. Let us witness His grace and truth, extending kindness, compassion, and forgiveness to others.

May our Lord Jesus Christ, born in Bethlehem, bless you, your families and loved ones at this blessed time of hope and grace. May Mary, the Mother of the Child Jesus and our Mother, watch over you and our beloved parishes always. May Saint Joseph, watchful guardian of the Holy Family, protect you and assist you in your struggles.

Once again, wishing you all A Blessed and Happy New Year!

With love and prayers,
Fr. Abraham, MCBS
