RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

To Carry the Cross

Carry the cross? Absolutely. I'm happy to! Hand it over. Here's the thing: I just might...set it down for a second, from time to time. That's okay, right?

How else am I supposed to have both hands free to gesture in anger? I can't do that if I'm carrying the cross. Well, fine, then let me just shift its weight, so I can catch my breath and say what I think about this person who's got it all wrong — I'll just lean it against the wall here. No? Okay, fine, I won't put it down! I'll keep holding it. That's better, actually. Then I can use it as a weapon.

What? Am I doing this "Christian" thing wrong?

"Whoever wishes to save his life will lose it," Jesus tells us in today's Gospel. "But whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

This is not an affirmation of the paradox that if you no longer care about something, you can finally have it once and for all. It's not a judgment about the worthlessness of life in this fallen world or the futility of trying to preserve that life.

It's merely a statement about priorities.

When Peter says, "God forbid!" at the thought of suffering, God is not his priority. His own safety is.

When I say, "God forbid!" at anything that comes from the mouth of God, it's a reminder to look at my hands — because they've probably put down the cross.

How merciful is our Lord — he never takes my cross from me, even when I walk far away from it. He always lets me pick it back up. In his dear and sweet goodness, he even helps me lift its weight. And he gestures, in case I've forgotten: "This way. Follow me."

We especially welcome young families as we partner with parents in nurturing the faith of the next generation.

SPIRITUAL LIFTERS

Aug. 30th - Love is never afraid of giving too much.

Aug. 31st - A parent cannot in simple justice demand from any child a standard of conduct which he does not himself fulfill.

Sept. 1st - The way you go must be your decision.

Sept. 2nd - It is not how much we have, but how much we enjoy, that makes happiness.

Sept. 3rd - When God allows extraordinary trials, He also prepares for His people extraordinary comfort.

Sept. 4th - I saw tomorrow look at me from the little children's eyes, and I thought how carefully we'd teach, if we were really wise.

Sept. 5th - Guard against the loss of spiritual power that comes through hasty words and judgments.

DONATIONS NEEDED CARMELITE FALL FESTIVAL

Although it is not our responsibility to organize and host the Carmelite Fall Festival this year, all churches of the area are asked each year to donate items that could be used for the festival to benefit the Sisters of the Monastery of the Holy Cross.

This year's hosts (American Martyrs and St. Mary's Queen of Peace of Kingsford) are asking for crafted items, homemade jam/jelly/canning, and new or gently used giftware and decor. Such items are needed by the end of THIS coming week so they can be priced & staged and should be dropped off in the St. Mary's Parish Hall so we can transport from there.

NEXT week, we are asked to provide baked goods for the bake sale & luncheon. A signup sheet will be in the back of both churches and baked goods will be delivered to the monastery on Friday, September 11.

The Carmelite Fall Festival will be held Noon-3 both Sat & Sun, Sept. 12-13. The Sisters depend on & appreciate our support.
